Driving Directions to The Natural Café:

- from the 118E (coming from Thousand Oaks / Ventura)

From the 118E take the Tapo Canyon Road exit and turn left.

- from the 118W (coming from the San Fernando Valley)

From the 118W take the Tapo Canyon Road exit and turn right.

2667 Tapo Canyon Rd, Simi Valley, CA 93063-6831 is on the left.

Driving Directions to Conejo Valley Archers:

- from the 118E (coming from Thousand Oaks / Ventura)

From the 118E take the Tapo Canyon Road exit and turn left.

- from the 118W (coming from the San Fernando Valley)

From the 118W take the Tapo Canyon Road exit and turn right.

Drive ~3 miles north, past the golf course staying on Tapo Canyon Road until you see the CVA and Tapo Canyon Park signs on the left. Drive SLOWLY into the park; continue straight and look to the left where you will see our gated asphalt parking area which you enter through the wide double gates. Parking on Saturdays is free within our gated fence area.

The Public Open Session shooting area is back out of the parking area. You will see the JOAD range targets ahead of you to the left as you walk through the gates and out of CVA's free parking area.

If you want to park in the upper parking area located within the park itself and directly below the JOAD range area you must pay the park fee at the kiosk as you drive in, or have a Ventura County Park Annual Pass Parking Permit.

~ suggested items to bring: sun screen, hat, and water ~
