Meeting support--Jacqui to write up something about Zoom security. Some meetings share a phone list via Chat. Others do a live Google doc for the meeting. Some secretaries send court cards by email. Some meetings email the phone list every week or two. Clifford noted that he has a dedicated host, asked host to turn off video for someone who's driving and it was distracting. This worked well. Some meetings request that people attend meetings from distraction-free environments. Some meetings don't have regular officers. Some people are eating or smoking.

Dawn suggested that we ask people what they are planning to do when meetings resume. Will it be possible to have a hybrid meeting?

Jacqui talked about how accessibility can be better via Zoom. One member wanted everyone to wear headphones—but not everyone has them. Opportunity to accept each other more.

Clifford said online meetings have been a blessing to me. Issues can be resolved through the group conscience process.

Ashok: A lot of weight also gets put on secretaries, they can get burned out. Jacqui agreed that being a secretary can bring up ACA issues. We can turn to people for help. We can check in with people doing service and see how they are doing.
